

Facing Death, Discovering Life

“Dying and the celebration of our life after death deserves careful thought as dying is one of the most important moments of our lives”

(Dr. Harold G. Koenig, MD)

Thursday, October 20, 2011

Our Lady of Lourdes Parish Hall

173 Lourdes St. Waterloo

7:00 to 9:00 pm

Free Presentation, No Registration Required

Refreshment and Displays

Speakers

Dr. Michael D. Coughlin, Ph.D.

Chair Tri-Hospital REB, Kitchener /Cambridge

Associate Professor, Dept. of Psychiatry & Behavioural Neurosciences, McMaster University

Father Cornelius O'Mahony

Pastor St. Michael's Catholic Church, Waterloo

Vicar for Education, Diocese of Hamilton

Rob Wintonyk

Co-owner and Director, Erb and Good Family Funeral Home, Waterloo

Master of Ceremonies – Dr. Jack Sehl, Retired KW Physician

Parking: Church parking lot and on the street.

Entrance to the hall is via the front-side door which is wheelchair accessible.

The lift is available for those who require assistance.

This presentation has been organized by the St. Michael's Health Committee, St Louis Health Council and St. Agnes and Our Lady of Lourdes Parish Communities